"P. H." Hymn

CECILE COVELL, '26

*Dear Alma Mater from whose heights
All healing grace descends,
Enduring may Thy help abide
Reflect in us Thy power to guide
Humanity as friends.*

*Across the shifting sands of time
The forward pathway leads,
With courage, faith and will our guard
As "Neighbors" serve without regard
To color, race or creeds.*

*Oh, grant us Lord that we may feel
Thy strength along the way,
The glory of Thy wisdom fill
Each loyal heart and mind until
Our last Commencement Day.*

THE CLASS OF 1968

Presents . . .

*Dreams, naked, words unspoken
Dwelt the Shadows
Tyrant rules.
Sameness born to decimate the new—
Half blood we are to sameness
Sold. All genuflect to circles bound
Upon the other half grows need
Pariah to the past.*

*Now the Matin, now the morning
In forms the evening forgotten
Once immutable, now immediate
Lifts incensed above the dawn
Knowledge and heritage yet to be
Locked notes within the mute unsung
Long mitigated through monotony
Now the anthem, Now the desideratum.*

*These are perishable pastures
Where dwelt the Shadows
Until the I of you in moments
Brief, a life, come to tear them out
Ceaseless learning sent to till
The fields of change
To dissatisfied satisfaction
And then to sing and till again.*

*Crackling, banging, grinding change
To take what is, and what is not, yet
Creativity and pinnacles reachable
Hopes.*

*To give and give anew.
To love and love anew.
To think and think anew.
To stand and stand anew.
To see, to hear and all anew.*

And then, to start again.

*Now the Anthem
Now the desideratum.*

*In dedication to Laurie Verdisco
And our theme of Transformation . . .*

There is no difference between this moment and the next, save that which each individual brings to that moment. What you build upon and what you build with are in constant change, for knowledge of your ignorance will always leave you striving. That which you build toward will be your goal.

Transformation is not to you alone, but to all that is about you. The world does not survive on stagnation, but a discontentment within contentment. Nursing will change around a core of caring, giving, and satisfaction to meet the demands of the society for which it cares. Programs here have changed to meet the needs of an educated public and increased medical knowledge, but more importantly, to meet the needs of the patient. The individual will change with greater knowledge and insight. Transformation will continue because of us or in spite of us.

Our dedication of this book, which is a chronicle of our transformation, to Laurie Verdisco, was not without purpose, for in times of such rapid transformation, a person who cares, understands and gives is invaluable. For all she has done for the class of 1968, our deepest, warmest and humblest thanks.

"The best portion of a good man's life—His little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love."

We will not forget . . .

FLORENCE L. VANDERBILT

In Memoriam:

MISS ELEANOR LEE (1895-1967)

There is a love that one has for those he knows, and there is a special love that is built upon respect that one has for those he does not know well enough, yet knows by his works, that that person has given and cared.

"... And there are those who give and know not pain in giving, nor do they seek joy, nor give with mindfulness of virtue; ... Through the hands of such as these God speaks, and from behind their eyes He smiles upon the earth....."

The Flute

Honor then this interlude

Spent

Listen,

For senses to tell,

Summed in one, the passing

Flute

That beckons never twice.

One pitch to Touch one thought with thought.

Listen,

For senses to tell

The moment being.

For this then, this interlude

Spent

Spending

For meanings to join all

Tomorrows.

Listen

The sounds of interminable longing

Of symphonies unplayed

And time unplayed

And flutes

That beckon never twice.

Soft as the new fallen snow,
And as strong as autumn winds."*

Introduction to Nursing

What doc, no Bon Ami?

Guyton has something to say about sterile technique.

Well, how would you go about it?

PR dear, not PO.

What, you have a little black book too?

How do you 'all feel about it?

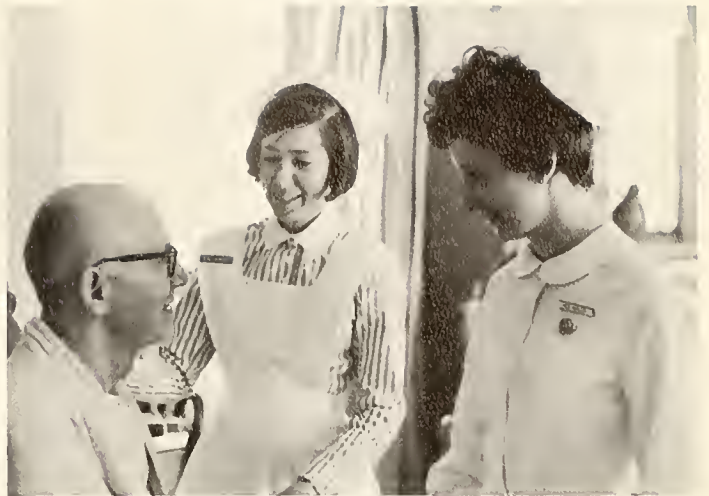

Milk and grahamies? mmmm.

By the by, it's a separation anxiety

45% of all cardiac patients. . . .

And now that you're done laughing, let me tell you what's really going to happen.

And now for my next list. . . .

Funny, the same thing happened to me at Bellevue

But it's not contaminated!

Oh yeah, you think you can do it?

Is this a green GAD or is it my eye shadow?

Me, tube of the month?

Which one has the Toni?

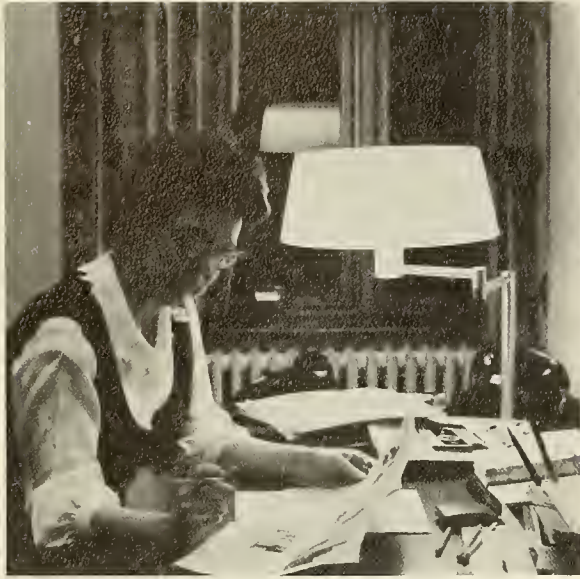

8:25, time for a conference.

Gone, but not forgotten.

I won't accept more than 97 typed pages.

D-O-C-T-O-R, D-O-C-T-O-R, D-O-C-T-O-R!

This is the group that taught us!

Essentials of Nursing

CONCORDAT

*To find the other, that thing unthought
To weep and wait for exigency
To call
To stay inside and embrocate the scars, to rub them out
Only to emerge, that elusive
Scar
Grown large on dry tears.*

*I have made a pact.
And the circle,
The circle that bounded
Bounded, but my glass prised marbles,
Now binds this pact
That I can stop from caring.
I thought
And now
I break my vow
And weep
And throw away my oils.
Bare scarred stand I,
Convert to caring
And weep for these that pain
Smothers.
I go now, when others say there is Nothing
The nothing that hurts only one.
No time for circles
Swept soils of winds blown clear.
That prised I
That caring won
The tears and laughter that life
Ridicules.
And I to gambling
That this will make a difference to one.*

Good morning.

Aseptic technique is really looking at yourself.

Tiptoe through the tulips.

Figured she had to learn sometime.

Drip, drip, drip.

$150 \div 4 \div 4$ again . . .

He doesn't really know what he's doing, just humor him.

Let's pull it out — he'll have to start it again.

If I could see your face, I'd take off points

Survey with the fringe on top.

It shouldn't happen, but just in case. . .

Step 1 (according to the Procedure Manual)

60/50 = 110 . . . okay, it's normal.

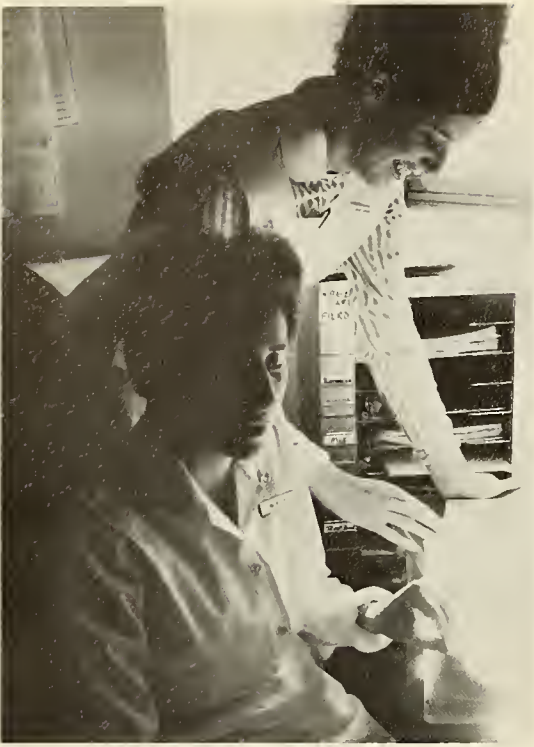

That tickles my periosteum!

Here at Tom McCann . . .

I don't believe it!

Oh god, could she have said that?

Ha, ha . . . you think!

What's up, Doc?

TGIF

Oh come on now, give us another.

When in doubt, cut it out.

Do we have a fourth for bridge?

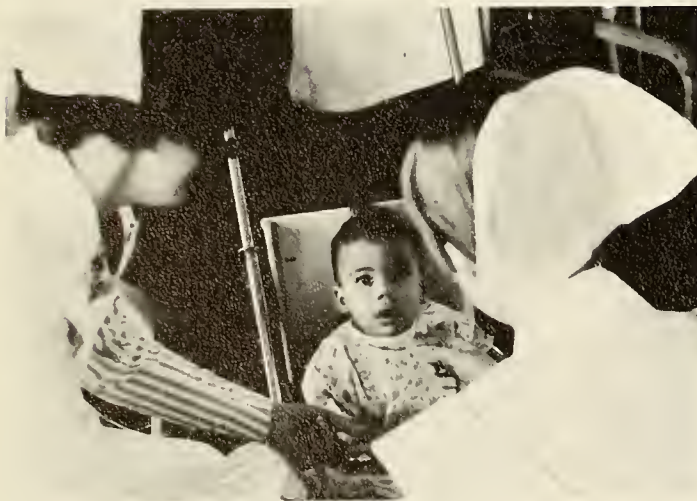

No, I can't, I'm working tonight.

It's called growth and development.

Never expose the patient!

Who the hell asked for this?

They tell me things go in cycles

Yours or mine?

Ethel, it's been 25 years!

I'll get through it if it kills me.

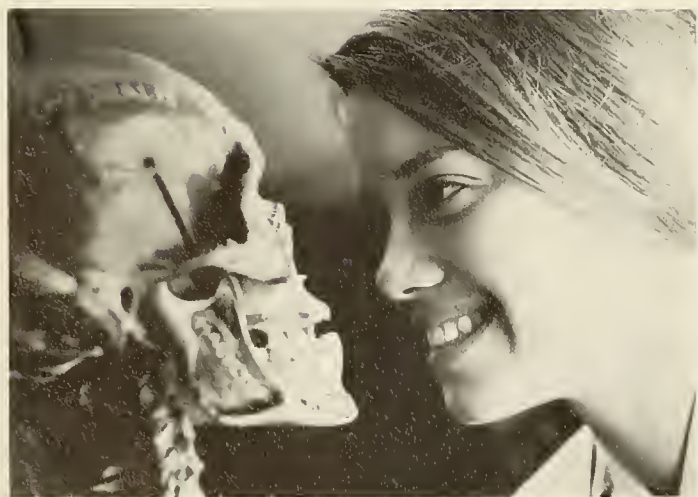

It's mine.

So what?

Ohhh, that's marvelous!

You haven't gone in three days?

W'bat's it to ya?

God, my hand's stuck!

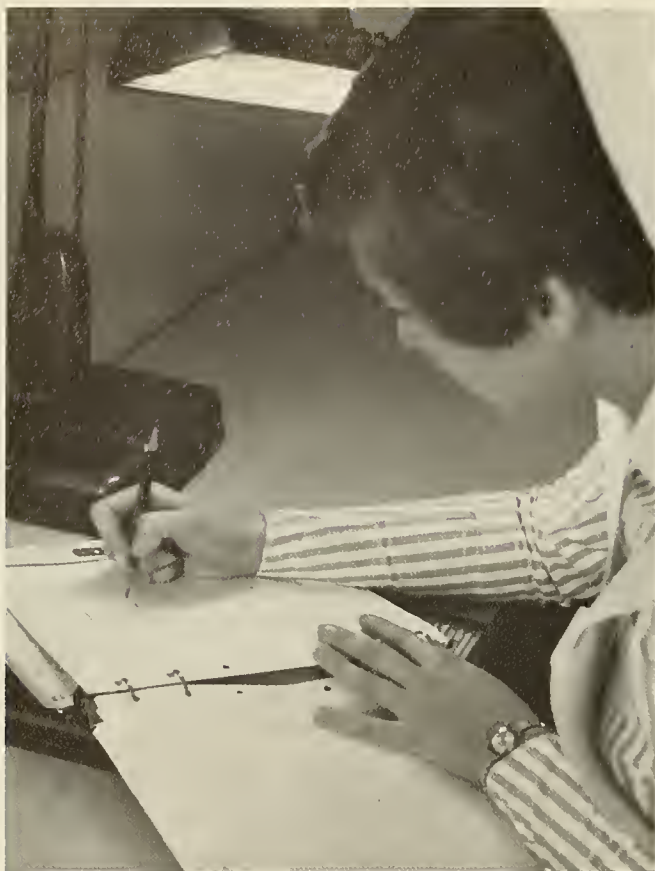

Did you move your bowels today?

I can't take it anymore!

In the valley of the ho, ho, ho. Q-R-S's

Self a.m. care. Up ad lib. Good day.

Maxwell bound.

Special Aspects of Nursing

This is my room, Mom!

You've gotta love it!

It's better than dinner in the cafeteria!

Now let's go to the corner for a pizza.

Dammit, lamb or liver again!

And this is our new furniture!

We're well protected from intruders!

Do you know what I know?

My instructor's watching.

Prisoners of their minds.

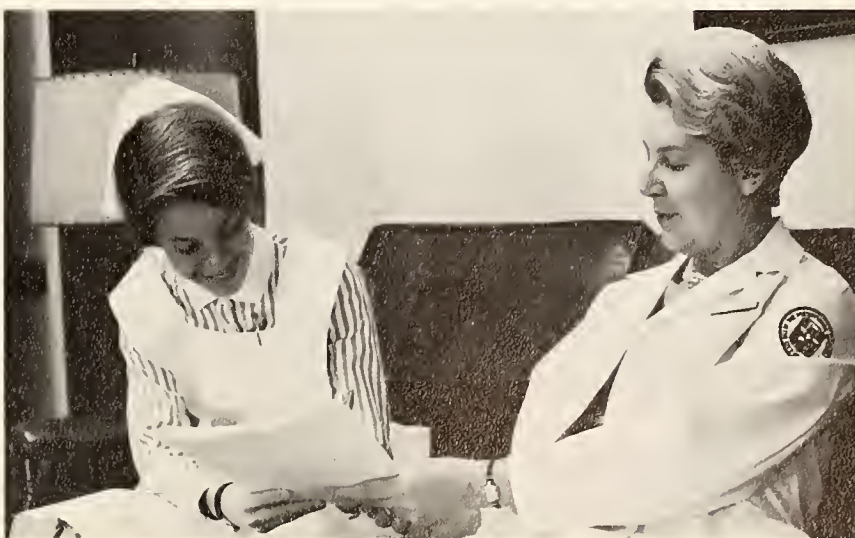

A student bookie.

Mmmmmmmmmmm.

Another coffee hour?

You have to sign your name.

Where are you? I'm hiding!

They call it nursing?

Now tell me, doctor.

I'm the editor of Icon, what's your excuse?

Who needs Michael?

Greetings, Flo!

My respects to A.C. Maxwell!

Have you ever been plastered?

It's not scotch-tape, really!

Sweet bird of youth!

Really, it's not incense we're burning

Those who play together, stay together.

This was a first!

Angels?

Yes, it does happen to a few of us.

Did you hear? I got a workshop.

From the singing telegram. . .

It's a large mouth.

Hail, hail, hail. . .

It was a "special" dinner?

What did he say?

Of course I'm happy here, pops!

Well, maybe just a little drop.

The mature approach to the cut system.

M.H. maintenance crew!

A hippie on a Honda.

Fun, huh? Work begins tomorrow!

Before . . . the days of tradition.

To understand the culture, you must spend time there.

After.

So what? I'm working nights!

I'm not going back on that ward!

Time to, shower and shave!

Typical student life.

You should see me when I'm tired!

"In Remembrance of Old 1968".

This was the end.

Oh say, can you stink?

That was the day that was!

Remember that Sunday night. . . ?

Olé!

We wouldn't let them forget us!

The Mafia!

Lovely, lovely.

Oh, my!

Full uniform below the second floor, girls.

You need it, we got it.

Laundry's late again.

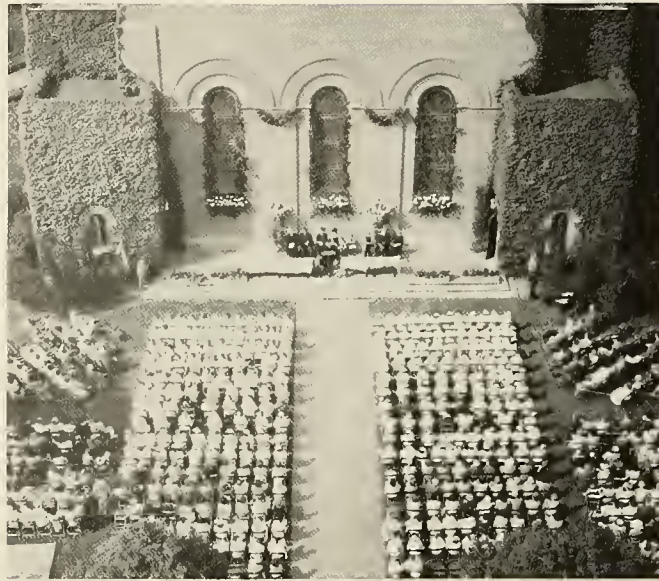

Typical M.H. mixer.

Proposed summer uniform.

76th Anniversary

Of Friends

*These are those forgotten streets
A friend and brothers to share them
No memories of shadowed suns
All muggy maddened blackened windows
Of unknown fate and voices without people.
Come my friend, of now, present born
Through frames, notches, cracks, long sidewalks
Puddles, goose bumps and smells of damp
Walls, imagination and hope
To understanding.
I want you there, to share a thought
Of am
And you am
Could we ever stand as naked
Like children and spring rains
Dripping gutters sounds
And we am and I am to care
Like peeling shutters, long stories told
The hearts
To understanding
Of am
And you am
We, the suns of streets will live
So long as there are streets.
So long as there are friends.*

THE NEW YORK WOMAN

When her needs are frugal her reaction is Chemical.

It's all there. The rain. The mood to buy something. And money in the bank. In our regular 4% Savings Account. Interest compounded quarterly.

She used to be the girl who couldn't save to save herself.

Now Chemical does it for her. With our Check 'n Save Service. While she sleeps, we transfer money from her checking account and deposit it in her savings account.

Her Savings Certificates give her 5% interest on $1,000 or more. Paid in full at maturity.

For pin money, Guaranteed Income Certificates give her 5% interest on $1,000 or more. Paid to her quarterly by check.

Four frugal plans. Over 140 offices in New York City, Nassau and Westchester.

The New York Woman can succeed in saving without really trying. At Chemical New York.

HAYDN

*Mother, stayed on rock eternal
Crowned and set upon a height,
Glorified by Light supernal—
In Thy radiance we see light.
Torch, Thy children's lamps to kindle,
Beacon-star, to cheer and guide,
Stand, Columbia, Alma Mater—
Through the storms of time abide!*

*Mighty patriots, warriors, sages,
Thou hast born, a shining band;
Teach Thy sons in future ages
Still to love their native land.
Throned upon the hills where heroes
Fought for Liberty, and died,
Stand, Columbia! Alma Mater—
Through the storms of time abide!*

*Honor, love and veneration
Crown forevermore Thy brow!
Many a grateful generation
Hail Thee as we hail Thee now!
Till the lordly Hudson seaward
Cease to roll his heaving tide,
Stand, Columbia! Alma Mater—
Through the storms of time abide!*
